

YOUR OWN ONLINE MARKETING SYSTEM FOR YOUR DEALER VEHICLES

STEP BY STEP GUIDE FOR BUYERS AT CARBIDONE

What you need to know:

CarBidOne is not a platform in its own right, but a kind of intermediary that enables car dealerships to organise their own car auctions.

You can bid in these auctions, but you always register directly with the car dealership in question.

There are two scenarios:

- Already running systems (car dealerships that already use CarBidOne)
- New systems (car dealerships that will be using CarBidOne in the near future)

CarBidOne is free of charge for buyers; as a platform, CarBidOne does not charge an auction fee. However, it is possible that the operating car dealership may charge an individual premium.

You will be notified by e-mail as soon as new auctions start.

REGISTRATION AT CAR DEALERSHIPS USING CARBIDONE IN THE NEAR FUTURE

- 1) Register once with CarBidOne at <https://registration.carbidone.de/>
- 2) Fill in the form: Enter your details and CarBidOne will take care of the rest.
- 3) Automatic registration with new car dealerships:
When a new dealership starts, you are automatically registered and can participate in the auctions without having to register again.

Less effort to register: You only need to register once and CarBidOne will take care of importing you to new dealerships as soon as they launch on the platform.

Get in early: You have the opportunity to be one of the first to participate in the auctions of new car dealerships that don't have as many buyers yet. This could give you a competitive advantage.

CONCLUSION: THE BEST STRATEGY - DO BOTH!

To get the best out of CarBidOne, it is advisable to do both:

Register directly with existing systems: This allows you to participate in auctions immediately and place your first bids. This is particularly useful if you want to bid quickly on current auctions without having to wait for new systems.

One-off registration with CarBidOne for new systems: This registration ensures that you are always automatically imported to new car dealerships that restart CarBidOne in the long term. You will always be notified when new auctions start and can also bid there without additional registration.

This combination means that you are both active in the short term (for existing systems) and well positioned for the long term (for new systems). This allows you to take advantage of immediate participation as well as benefit from new auctions at an early stage.
